

To Mike Hourigan –

We're giving you a 10 out 10!

For anyone looking to work with Mike, we'd like to share a few words:

Mike's presentation flowed seamlessly, making it easy to follow; our team understood every aspect of his talk. Starting with an ice breaker, Mike had us putting on our 'thinking caps' and really encouraged group collaboration. His style put people at ease and made them feel comfortable.

It was obvious to all that Mike put a hefty amount of time into preparing for our conference. He talked to a few of our team weeks in advance to get a feel for our company, and while onsite, he shared lunch with the team, showing his warmth and personal commitment to our event.

His clear, concise PowerPoint slides were easy to read and practical – supporting his key points without requiring the team to be 'staring at a screen' to get the messaging. Mike's real-life examples were so helpful and created true lightbulb moments for us.

Kemah Capital would highly recommend Mike Hourigan to any organization that is looking to elevate their professional events.

Sincerely,

Graham Bell
